

"create a image of teacher torturing his student with too much homework.
The art should eldenring like."

Response:

"A dark fantasy scene in the style of Elden Ring. A towering, ominous teacher figure looms over a small, hunched student in a ruined, gothic-style classroom. The teacher wears ancient, tattered robes, with glowing eyes and a crown of rusted books. He wields a giant quill like a weapon, pointing it toward the student. Piles of scrolls and cursed-looking homework float in the air around him like chains. The student, looking exhausted and terrified, sits at a broken desk surrounded by stacks of glowing, cursed papers. The atmosphere is grim, misty, and heavy with dread, like a cursed dungeon."
